APPLICATION INFORMATION

Cancellation of the dog's registration or modification of the application will only be possible after filling out the appropriate form online forms on the exhibition website.

Changes or cancellations can only be requested until the second deadline!

The cancellation fee is half of the exhibition fee. Requests for change or cancellation via e-mail will not be accepted!

Canceling a dog's registration means deregistering a specific dog from the show day. Applies to cases where applications only contain individuals or one individual is removed from an application with multiple dogs. In the case of a cancellation fee, the proportional part will be returned no later than 3 weeks after the end of the exhibition.

Payment information:

The date of payment, not the date of registration of the application, decides the difference between the payments of the 1st and 2nd deadlines!

Unpaid applications will be canceled without notice within one week of submission.

There is no discount for the second dog.

A change of ownership for one or more registered dogs will be treated as a new registration at full price.

Payment on the spot, on the day of the exhibition, is not possible.

Cancellation or change of application is only possible for a fee and until the second deadline.

When paying by bank transfer, attach proof of payment of the exhibition fee to the application.

When paying for multiple dogs (with the same owner, within one registration), pay the show fees together.

The fee for canceling the dog's registration or changing the application will be charged separately for each day of the exhibition.

The fee for changing/cancelling a dog depends on the date of sending the online form.

When paying by bank transfer, please include the name of the account holder in the Dogoffice system in the notes.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REGISTRATION

After online registration, the exhibitor must receive a confirmation email with registration data.

If you have not received the confirmation email, it is possible that the registration has NOT BEEN PROCESSED!

In such cases, contact the email triocacib@kynologie.cz immediately and provide your details registration. You can find out whether the application was successfully submitted in your profile in the „My applications“ section where its status can also be monitored.

Applications sent by email will not be accepted!

For each application, a copy of the pedigree certificate (recognized by the FCI) must be uploaded to the Dogoffice system both sides, with the owner's name legible. The dog owner's name must match the DogOffice account owner's name. If co-ownership is indicated for the dog, it is necessary to create a new account in the system with the names of all co-owners.

By accepting the application, the exhibitor is subject to all provisions of the international FCI show regulations, show rules of the ČMKU (Czech-Moravian Cynological Union) and the propositions of the show. The organizer is not responsible for an incorrectly completed application.

By submitting the registration, the exhibitor agrees that his name and address will be published in the catalog of the exhibition.

When paying by bank transfer, please include the name of the account holder in the Dogoffice system in the notes.

The online version of the catalog will be published on the day of the exhibition before the start of judging at www.praguexpodog.cz. A printed version of the catalog will not be available.

ENTRY LISTS

The organizer reserves the right to:

- To change judges and to change these propositions;
- Determining or changing the maximum number of registered dogs (especially in the case of an established maximum number of people at public events). It also applies if the number of registered users is limited of dogs and the possibility of ending registration before the closing date due to capacity reasons;
- In case of cancellation of the exhibition, the amount for the registration will be returned to the exhibitor, reduced by at most CZK 100 for the purpose of paying the necessary costs associated with the organization of the exhibition;
- Not to accept the application of any exhibitor without giving a reason.
- the possibility of setting a different fee amount in the extension of the last deadline, by a maximum of 40 % compared to the second deadline.

Entry lists:

They will be available in the dogoffice user account, about ten days before the exhibition.

The admission ticket also serves as a unique ticket to the exhibition.

Number of reported individuals = number of free entries to the exhibition.

The exhibitor can attend the exhibition according to the judging schedule, which we publish about 10 days before the exhibition.

It is therefore not necessary to be at the exhibition from the beginning. At the same time, care must be taken to ensure sufficient time reserve (complications upon arrival, current traffic situation, route from the parking lot, etc.).

The entry sheet contains information about the exhibition days (for each exhibition day there is one entry sheet), about all reported dogs, their classes, including catalog numbers and numbers exhibition circles.

If the exhibitor does not find the entry form in his account by the set deadline, it is possible that registration did not take place, in such cases contact the email triocacib@kynologie.cz immediately and provide your registration details.

VETERINARY CONDITIONS AND PROTESTS

Dogs must be equipped with a passport for small animals or a vaccination certificate (according to § 6 paragraph

3 letter b of Act 166/1999 Coll., on veterinary care and on the amendment of some related laws as amended by the Veterinary Act). This document must be available during the exhibition for inspection by a veterinarian.

Please note that on January 1, 2020, based on the amendment to the Veterinary Act No. 302/2017 Coll. the obligation to mark dogs in the territory of the Czech Republic with a microchip enters into force.

All animals must have a valid vaccination against rabies in accordance with Section 4, paragraph 1, letter f of the Veterinary Act.

Dogs of breeders from EU member countries and third countries must meet the given conditions by Regulation 576/2013 of the European Parliament and the Council of 12 June 2013. At the event and all the participating individuals are subject to the valid veterinary conditions of the Czech Republic and the EU.

Exhibitors are responsible for the welfare of dogs at the show. It is prohibited to expose a dog to a situation that could endanger its health or well-being, such as leaving it in a vehicle in extreme heat or cold, or to treat it in a rough manner. Violation of this regulation will result in exclusion from this and subsequent shows.

Protests:

A protest against the judge's decision is not admissible. Protests can only be made for formal reasons of violation of exhibition regulations and propositions. The protest must be submitted in writing, together with the deposit of CZK 2,200, and only during the exhibition, i.e. as long as it is judged in rounds (does not apply to the preliminary and final round). If the protest is not recognized, the principal is forfeited in favor of the exhibition organizer.

Photos and videos may be taken at the exhibition. Visiting spectator, exhibitor agrees to be photographed or recorded. If he doesn't want it, he can let the photographer know.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Every registered dog must have with him a certificate of dog origin, issued by a stud book, which is recognized by the FCI.

Dogs with cropped ears will not be admitted to the show. According to the Act on the Protection of Animals against Cruelty No. 7/2004 in full, which amends Act No. 246/1992. A dog with a docked tail will not be judged unless docking is permitted by the standard.

If the number of registered dogs in the ring exceeds 80 individuals, the report does not have to be included verbal description of the dog. During the exhibition, dogs will be randomly checked according to their tattoo or chip number for the purpose of identification.

The exhibition is open to dogs and bitches of all breeds registered in FCI-recognised breed books who have reached the age required for inclusion in the class on the day of the exhibition. Dogs must be registered in the stud book of the FCI member state or in the stud book of countries whose PP is recognized by the FCI.

The organizer of the exhibition is not responsible for damages caused by the dog or the exhibitor, nor for the death or loss of the dog. Dogs are not allowed to run free. Biting, aggressive and sick dogs are excluded from the exhibition according to the exhibition rules. Also excluded from the exhibition are bitches in the second half of pregnancy, nursing bitches and individuals with surgical or other veterinary procedures to remove a defect in the dog's exterior. As well as dogs owned by persons who have been deprived of the right to exhibit.

It is forbidden to adjust the coat, skin or muzzle of the dog with anything that changes their structure, color or shape.

It is forbidden to groom the dog in the area of the exhibition center with the help of any substances or aids. Only cutting, trimming, combing and brushing is allowed.

It is also forbidden to tie the dog on the grooming table for a longer time than is necessary for grooming.

Violation of this provision may result in the immediate exclusion of the dog from participation in the exhibition.

Owners of dogs with the title „BOB - Winner of Prague“ are obliged to participate with their dogs in the final competitions. Does not apply to unrecognized breeds. The marks (color, size, according to coat type) of some breeds are assessed separately, according to FCI regulations, or according to the decision of ČMKU.

Unless otherwise stated in the propositions, the provisions of the FCI International Show Regulations apply and exhibition rules of the ČMKU. The exhibitor is obliged to pay the exhibition fees even if the dog will not participate in the exhibition. The sale of puppies at the exhibition is prohibited.
